

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

... A library in every language!

English

Bible Story

MT Title

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

Original text from: Luke 10:25-37

Illustrations by: Mbanji Bawe, Cameroon, 1997 ©

Used with permission.

Translated by:

Language

Month, year pub date

Edition

copies

For non-profit reproduction purposes in local languages only.

Then Jesus asked, “Which one of these three men do you think was a neighbor to the man who was attacked by the robbers?”

The teacher of the law answered, “The one who helped him.”

Jesus said to him, “Yes. Now go and do the same thing he did!”

ISB

© Publisher’s name

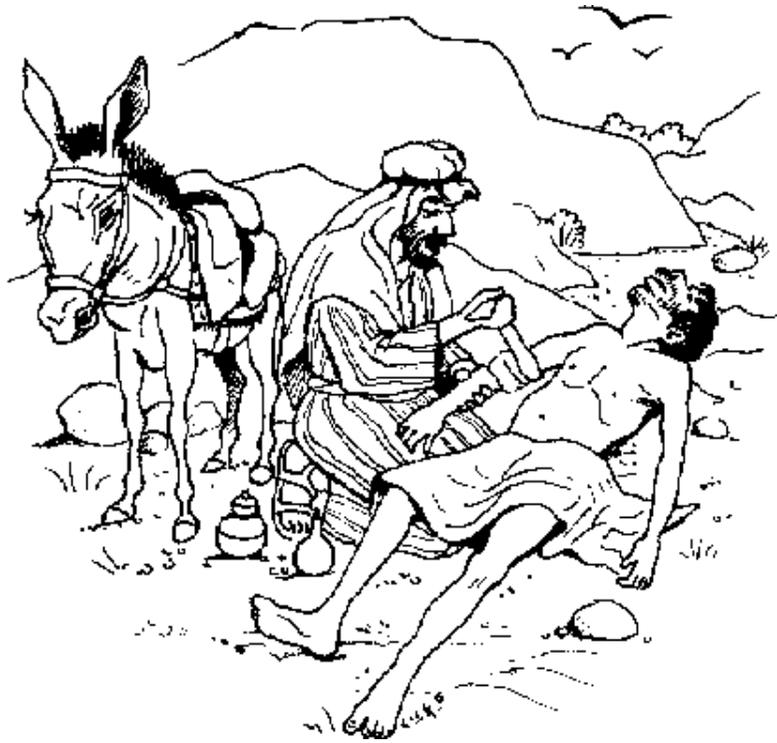

Address

Country

PREFACE (write in both MT and LWC)

The next day, the Samaritan brought out two silver coins and gave them to the innkeeper. The Samaritan said, “Take care of this man. If you spend more money on him, I will pay it back to you when I come again.”

Then a despised Samaritan traveling down the road came to where the hurt Jewish man was lying. He saw the man and felt very sorry for him. The Samaritan went to him and poured olive oil and wine on his wounds and bandaged them. He put the hurt man on his own donkey and took him to an inn. At the inn, the Samaritan took care of him.

One day a teacher of the law wanted to test Jesus. He asked him, “Teacher what must I do to inherit eternal life?”

Jesus said, “What is written in the law?”

The man answered, “Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind” and “Love your neighbor as yourself.”

“Right!” Jesus told him. “Do this and you will live!”

Then the teacher of the law asked, “Who is my neighbor?”

To answer the question, Jesus told this story.

A Jewish man was going down the road from Jerusalem to Jericho. Some robbers attacked him. They tore off his clothes and beat him. Then they left him lying there, almost dead.

It happened that a Jewish priest was going down that road. When the priest saw that man, he walked by on the other side of the road.

Next, a religious Levite came there. He went over and looked at the man. Then he walked by on the other side of the road.